WELCOME TO

STERNEWIRTH AT HOTEL EMMA

Our House Classics

Every great bar has its quintessential recipes. At Sternewirth, ours encompass signatures that have been with us from the beginning and new favorites that have earned their place along the way.

Each has a story of its own, including tributes to Hotel Emma's namesake Madame Emma Koehler, chapters of San Antonio history, and traditions born right here in the Pearl Brewery's original 1894 Brewhouse.

THE PRIVILEGED FEW

OUR BARTENDERS' CHOICE

Sternewirth takes its name from the "Sternewirth Privilege," a 19th-century brewery tradition that once entitled employees to beer during the workday. Although Prohibition brought the practice to an end elsewhere, the Pearl Brewery team continued gathering in their taproom for decades.

For our modern spin on the privilege, we asked our bartenders a simple question: If you were sitting on the other side of the bar, what would you order? Their answers come in pairs: One cocktail and one shooter, each made for toasting with friends.

PROST AUF ALKOHOLFREI

OUR ZERO-PROOF SIPS

Our Alkoholfrei (German for “non-alcoholic”) menu is a celebration of creativity without compromise. Crafted with the same care and balance as their spirited counterparts, these zero-proof cocktails ensure there’s a place for everyone at Emma’s table.

They also pay homage to Emma Koehler’s foresight during Prohibition, when she transformed the Brewery’s operations to produce bottled sodas, ice, and ice cream, and offer services like dry cleaning and sign making. Today and every day, we raise a glass to her innovative spirit.

Pearl has a rich history dating back to 1883 when the San Antonio Brewing Association (SABA) was formed. In 1887, the brewery found the product that would become their signature brew. Pearl beer gets its name-sake from the brewmaster, who thought the foamy bubbles in the freshly poured glass of brew resembled sparkling pearls.

TRUE STORY:

IN THE 1950S, A "TIGHT" WORKER WAS SCOLDED BY A PEARL BREWERY MANAGER FOR GETTING DRUNK AT WORK. THE WORKER REPLIED, "RESPECTFULLY, SIR, I DID NOT GET DRUNK ON THE JOB...I WAS RIGHT DRUNK WHEN I GOT HERE!"
